VENDOR GUIDELINES & APPLICATION

The First Missionary Baptist Church (FMBC) is hosting its 25th Annual Unity In Our Community Heritage Day Celebration, Saturday, February 16, 2019, 11:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m., in a new location: Lake Maude Park - 1790 7th St NE, Winter Haven, FL 33881.

The festival is FREE to the public and will feature a fashion show, singing, dancing, and scores of vendors promoting food and other items. We expect attendance and participation from citizens throughout the State of Florida.

- Vendors may arrive as early as 7:00 AM for set-up and should have tents and displays ready by 10:00 AM.
- Each vendor space is approximately 10' x 15' and can be purchased for $50 (more space for same fee as last year!) Space requirements larger than 10' x 15' (large grills, food trucks, etc.) will require the purchase of additional spaces.
- Vendors must complete and submit the application AND the $50 vendor fee (NO refunds for inclement weather).
- Spaces will ONLY be guaranteed for prepaid vendors.
- Vendors are NOT permitted to sell WATER. ONLY First Missionary Baptist Church may sell water. Vendors may sell beverages such as sodas, smoothies, Italian Ice, etc.
- NO X-rated merchandise, drug paraphernalia, or items depicting violence will be permitted.
- VENDORS MUST BRING THEIR OWN TENTS, TABLES, CHAIRS, AND GENERATORS/PROPANE FOR POWER SOURCE. NO electrical sources will be provided for vendors.
- Those who pay/sponsor at the level of $500+ will receive space with a table and chairs under the pavilion, an on-stage greeting/acknowledgement, and a sponsor spotlight!
- Food vendors using cooking grease shall NOT dispose of the grease on the festival grounds.
