

RavenSPEAK

RAVEN INSTITUTE

Intake Steps

- 1) Review and complete the candidate intake form
- 2) Assess that you have the time and commitment needed for full engagement
- 3) Have a conversation with a member of the RavenSPEAK team
- 4) Be notified before March 21, 2018, if you have one of the eight seats in the program

Candidate

Name: _____ Email: _____ Phone: _____

Candidate Intake for Phase 1

- You have completed the RavenSPEAK participant survey.
- You are an Indigenous leader/academic/changemaker/professional with experience speaking in public who is committed to carving out time to improve your skills; you are willing to share your passions and expertise and tell your stories.
- You are eager to showcase a talk at a capstone public showcase event.
- You are keen to increase your mastery for public speaking, media interviews, business and idea pitching.
- You are excited to be part of the engaged community cohort – learning and leading, sharing wisdom, practicing generosity, and co-creating a brave space to explore and grow.
- You want to be featured on the Indigenous Speakers Hub.

Phase 1 • 2018

- You are in the Lower Mainland area for in-person events in downtown Vancouver.
- You are available and 100% committed to attending April 4, 2018, for the evening launch event (a learning module, a media release, a reception, and an expert panel).
- You are available and 100% committed to attending the evening learning modules in downtown Vancouver April 25, May 9, May 23, June 13 of 2018.
- You are available and 100% committed to present your talk at the June 14, 2018, capstone public showcase event.
- You are excited, ready to fully engage - wanting to promote the program and events, share your ideas for program development, and support future cohorts.
- You are First Nations, Metis, or Inuit.

Phase 2 • 2019

- You are interested in Phase 2 January – June 2019. In Phase 2, we'll introduce technology to deliver programming to include more Indigenous changemakers.

Indigenous leaders & storytellers • visible, masterful, amplified, & connected

Courage • Resurgence • Mastery • Community