

16 January 2018

THE EYES OF GOD is a reflection of our national anthem:

Here every creed and race find an equal place
And may God bless our nation.

This mas brings into focus the adage “all ah we is one” in a sea of white sailors with black and white eyes floating overhead, looking down on them. Minsh has zeroed in on the essence of what mas is - the energy of the people filling the city streets and the canvas of the stage.

On Carnival Tuesday, Minsh’s message to everyone is the sole embellishment against the stark white of the sailor – on the chest of the T-shirts or the back collar of the sailor:

All men are equal in the eyes of God.
Would that
All Gods were equal in the eyes of Man.

Hence, there are no section leaders, no individuals ... we are all equal!

Adorned with small black and white butterfly wings reflecting the EYES overhead, a limited-edition sailor section leads the band on stage with a flutter, heralding the white sailors following.

Minsh’s vision for 2018 Mas is a sea of white sailors bringing one explicit message to us all beneath a canopy of THE EYES OF GOD – we are all one!!

The Eyes of God Team