TO OUR VISTORS

We want to personally thank you for joining us today. It is our prayer you leave our worship service with an uplifted spirit. Below is what you can expect during today's worship services.

Singing: Non-instrumental singing plays a great part of our worship services. We trust that you will find this to be a uplifting praise to the Lord (Eph. 5:19)

Communion/Lord's Supper: Each Sunday we observe the Lord's Supper, which reflects on the death burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus, and the hope of everlasting life we now can live through him (I. Cor. 11:23-26)

Contribution: During the service, we as members are given the opportunity to give a portion of what God has given us. These funds are used to support the church locally and abroad to help spread God's Word (I. Cor. 16: 2)

God's Help for Parents and Children

Further, children learn respect for human justice when they are taught to honor their parents. My dad had zero tolerance for lying and administered his disapproval forcefully when he caught me lying. I didn't understand that he was teaching me the importance of telling the truth and honesty as they relate to good character. Right beside his disdain for lying was speaking dishonorably and disrespectfully to him or mom, especially mom. She was his queen and his prize jewel, and I knew it. Folks, children ought not to be excused for lying or speaking disrespectfully to their parents. If children are allowed to do that when they are young, why wouldn't they dishonor others if it will achieve their selfish ends? Children must learn early "thou shalt not bear false witness."

Equally important is the need for children to learn respect for human individuality which will help them learn "thou shalt not covet." The idea of coveting is an inordinate desire. Our children need to learn they can't have and do not need everything the next fellow has. Children need to honor their parents' status: they received an education and worked hard to earn the income they have. Likewise, children must learn the value of a good education and hard work in order to achieve in life. Along with respect for human individuality, children need to learn there are different levels of ability and different levels of status in life. This should help them understand they do not have to compete with their neighbor or society in general.

Finally, parents make mistakes and at times don't use the best judgments. Sometimes we even fail to practice the principles we teach. But, our imperfection does not give children the right to point a finger and say, "Look you made a mistake; you aren't perfect. I don't have to listen to you." Respect for parents is not built on their inherent strength, goodness or wisdom but because it is God's will. Parents, let's diligently teach our children to honor their parents so that it may be well with their soul.

Kashmere Gardens will be hosting the 1st Sunday singing TODAY at 2:00 pm. Please make plans to enjoy great group singing from various congregations from across the Houston area.

BIBLE TRIVIA QUESTION

Whose neck was to be broken?

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S QUESTION

What three parts of the Israelites body would be involved in remembering the days of unleavened bread?
 Psalms 19: 1-3

BLACK HISTORY 365- FACTS

Journalist Ida Wells-Barnett refused to give up her railcar seat for a white man in 1884, and bit a conductor on the hand when he tried to force her. She was dragged off the train. She sued the railroad and initially won, but the decision was overturned.

The media made the Black Panthers notorious for their Afros, dark apparel, and willingness for armed self-defense, but their manifesto for change launched programs that benefited Black communities nationwide, like free dental care, breakfast for low-income children, even drama classes.

Liberia was founded and colonized by expatriates. The West African country is one of two sovereign states in the world started as a colony for ex-slaves and marginalized Black people. Sierra Leone is the other.
