Information and Rules:

- This is a model horse photo show. A model horse of some kind must be in every picture.
- Show is open to all makes, finishes and sizes. Original finish, china, customs, and resins will all show together.
- There is an entry limit of four photos per class per shower. Buy-in's for $1 per photo available.
- One photo per horse per class. Collages allowed (but not required) in Tell Me a Story class only.
- Halter classes are by breed type. There is no "other breeds or mixed" class. Place your horse in the breed type class that you feel best fits. I will not be policing what breeds go in which class, so please do your homework and make your best choice. Workmanship / collectability will be taken into account in breed type halter classes.
- Each equine may enter one breed type class (classes 34-43). NaMoPaiMo and Childhood Favorite entries may cross-enter other halter classes.
- The show will be held on Facebook and you will be given access to the group once your entry has been processed. If you are not on Facebook, you are welcome to have a proxy upload on your behalf. Please email me directly if you plan to use a proxy.
- Each class has its own Album (go to Media, then Albums). Upload your picture to the respective album for that class and within the description section include: Horse's Name, Breed & Gender
- Captions, additional information, and documentation can be included in the description or the comments.
- Documentation is highly recommended for performance entries. You can use imgur.com to create a link for your documentation or upload to the designated documentation folder and copy the link from there.
- Realistic backgrounds are not required, but quality (presentation) of photo will be considered. Realistic backgrounds may be helpful in performance, as it helps to create the scene.
- Photos may be cropped, straightened, brightened, and adjusted to show the true color of your model. No other digital alterations allowed (removing bases, covering flaws, making enhancements, etc. are not allowed).
- Saddleseat may show in the appropriate English class (rail class, trail, etc.).
- Creativity challenge is open to interpretation of the theme. Please keep it in good taste.
- To avoid the appearance of any favoritism, please do not enter models painted or customized by the show holder and judge, Danielle Feldman.
- If you have questions about the show, please email me at danielle@feldmanstudio.com. Please do not use Facebook messenger to contact me, as I don't find it reliable. Also, please be patient if I don't respond right away, I have a busy job. I can't wait to see all your entries! Come join the fun!!
