Alamance Citizens for a Drug Free Community, a local non-profit organization, works with law enforcement, schools, Elon University, churches, businesses, parents, youth, health organizations and others to prevent alcohol and drug abuse.

We implement strategies that impact individuals and the community through education, skill building and advocacy for policies that change local conditions that influence substance abuse behaviors. Our work involves partnering with other individuals, organizations, systems and initiatives that together impact the health and social well-being of our community.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Alamance Citizens for a Drug Free Community, through the work of community coalition efforts, is to promote the reduction of underage drinking, prescription and over the counter drug abuse and other substance abuse among youth and their families through coordinated, committed and collaborative prevention efforts.
