RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING EXHIBITS:

This contract is made subject to the following rules of the Cloud County Fairboard. The space stipulated in this contract is to be used solely for the vendor named in this contract during the 2018 Cloud County Fair and cannot be transferred or any portion of the space be sublet by the vendor without prior approval of the Cloud County Fairboard. You are expected to occupy the space assigned and no moving is allowed without the consent of a representative of the Fairboard. No vehicles will be allowed in vendor space during the evening hours without prior approval.

The Cloud County Fair agrees to:

1. Use all reasonable care to prevent loss or damage to vendor's property, but is not liable in any manner for loss or damage.
2. Reserve the right to control the use of the volume on any sound production device that might interfere with other exhibitors, vendors or patrons. Public address systems are not allowed unless authorized.
3. Will attempt to limit duplication of vendors with sufficient information provided by registration contracts. In the case that similar types of vendors are present, the Fairboard will attempt to separate the like types of vendors.
4. The Cloud County Fairboard reserves the right to terminate this agreement anytime, including before or during the Fair.
5. Offer the same exhibit space for returning vendors, if requested.

The Exhibitor agrees to:

1. Provide the needed items to build their venue including tables, chairs, and other supplies as needed. All signs, displays, etc. are subject to the rules and regulations of this agreement. No venue will be constructed to limit entrance or sight of the neighboring vendor..
2. Have their venue ready to serve the public by 5:30pm each night of the Fair and to keep the area clean at all times.
3. Not use any highly flammable materials or displays items that would be deemed "unsafe".
4. Have proof of Liability Insurance available for viewing by a Fairboard member at check-in or during the Fair.
5. Hold the Cloud County Fairboard and its volunteers, harmless and without liability. To assume all liability for bodily injury or property damage caused by the venue placed at the Cloud County Fair.
6. Not park your vehicle in your display area during evening hours.
7. Keep your area clean and maintain a family atmosphere.

Security at the Fairgrounds is provided by the Cloud County Sheriff Department. Daytime and night patrols are scheduled.
