Tour Description

If you love nature and birds, Boeng PEARAING bird sanctuary would ideally be the best option. The boat excursion slowly cruises around one of Tonle Sap's potential wetland and allows you to observe various threaten water-birds that migrated from different parts of mangroves around Tonle Sap Lake. By car passing huge beautiful rice paddies dotting with palm trees, the journey is inspired by a short walking tour at local market.

Detailed Itinerary

Our driver will be meeting you at 8.00am (or 3.00pm) at your hotel's lobby then heading out of the hassle Siem Reap city, you will be warmly greeted by our local bird-guide at Chreav community office then we drive passing beautiful hug rice fields dotting with palm trees, cattle, birds and harvesting activities (seasonal), come across plenty of gardening activities and you probably want to stop to capture some photos before we arrive the Boeng PEARAING bird site. Begin embarking a sheltered boat slowly cruising within Boeng PEARAING which allows you to see Cambodia's threaten waterbirds such as Comb Duck, Purple Swamphen, Cormorant, Darter, Purple and Grey Heron, Adjutant, Lesser Whistling Duck etc and take as many as photos you like. Enjoy the surrounding admired by its serenity while observing and learning from your tour guide about bird breeding, migration, and specially witness how the conservative area & birds are carefully being protected. There are plenty of photo opportunities during the tour before we return hotel and our driver say Goodbye to you.

Note: Afternoon trip provides sunset view over Boeng PEARAING while the morning trip is a bit cooler and look fresher with the surroundings.

Dressing Code

Cambodia geographically stays in the tropical monsoon, its weather varies and annually brings wet and dry seasons, generally hot in during day time and a bit cooler at night, and in the early morning. You should wear whatever most comfortable but remember to dress appropriately to respect the locals and active religious sites; pagodas, temples and holy places. Clothes must cover your shoulders and knees when you wish to visit the top part at Angkor Wat and Royal Palace in Phnom Penh.
