Tour Description

Explore the hidden ruined temple “Beng Mealea” sitting within the lush wilderness and is famed for its serenity, intertwined trees and the perfection for photographing. The adventure is truly exotic, enhanced by the nature and you’re going to climb over big piles of rocks, scrawling, and squeezing into the ruined galleries to reveal its mystery. Enroute to taste some bites of bamboo sticky rice and observe how it is made.

Detailed Itinerary

Our escort guide and driver will be meeting you at 8.30am at your hotel’s lobby then drive out of the hassle Siem Reap city toward Beng Mealea temple which was built in 12th century during Angkor Wat time, locates about 65km with approx. 1 hour drive. The journey provides nice views of rice paddies, countryside dotting with palm trees and we stop to observe how traditional bamboo sticky rice is made, and try some bites of its delicious taste. If your day is appropriated, you will visit a local house where you see people producing incenses and it’s your chance to learn how it is made. Resume the journey, we stroll around Dom Dek market to witness daily life of people selling their vegetables, meat and exchange the trades.

We purchase the temple pass then drive directly to Beng Mealea where our real adventure begins. Enjoy the guided walking orientation with the wilderness to unlock the hidden jungle temple whose the ruined rocks spread around, enhanced by the vegetation and the tranquility. Walk, crawl, climb and squeeze into/over galleries to see its amazing setting, reveal the history, take picturesque photos and feel the natural surroundings. This temple would be an ideal for those who love to photograph and like the quietness of the nature. Return to your hotel, next our guide and driver say Goodbye to you.

Local English Speaking Guide

Tour guide is the most important window for our company, is the one who makes you leave Cambodia with meaningful and memorable experience. Importantly, for your trip, we reserve a local tour guide that has long-year experienced, friendly attitude, informative, knowledgeable and advisable.

Transportation

Due to the distance, air conditioning vehicle is the best option, cool and comfortable, and included with the tour cost. Tuk Tuk is not highly recommended for this trip.

Dressing Code

Cambodia geographically stays in the tropical monsoon, its weather varies and annually brings wet and dry seasons, generally hot in during day time and a bit cooler at night, and in the early morning. You should wear whatever most comfortable but remember to dress appropriately to respect the locals and active religious sites; pagodas, temples and holy places. Strong footwear is strongly recommended, should bring along insect repellent and make sure your camera is fully charged a day before.
