Tour Description

Similar to 1-Day Preah Vihear & Koh Ker, the 2-day tour just added Beng Mealea jungle temple and gives you a bit more time to slow down when visit each site. Journey starts from your hotel in Siem Reap, drive with a few hours to see museum house of Tamok who was one of Khmer Rouge leaders, visit Preah Vihear temple atop Dangrek Mountain and stay overnight before heading to explore forested Koh Ker & Beng Mealea.

Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Our escort guide and driver will be meeting you at 7.30am at your hotel's lobby then drive out of the hassle Siem Reap city to Preah Vihear province bordering Thailand. The journey takes approx. 4 hours, passing countryside dotting with palm trees and rice paddies. We stop to visit Ta Mok's house which owned by a famous Khmer Rouge leader, named Ta Mok, we witness the remnants used by Pol Pot leader and unlock the tragic history of Cambodia. Continue setting off to take 4-WD vehicle to wander the ancient Preah Vihear temple atop Dangrek mountain which provides the spectacular landscape, learn from your tour guide about temple history and take picturesque photos of the most spectacular setting of the temple. Heading to Preah Vihear town for an overnight (own account).

Day 2: We set off to an archaeological site of Pre-Angkorian temple - the very less touristy temple that Koh Ker has attracted more and more tourists to discover its ruins among the wilderness. Koh Ker temple was probably served as state temple of Khmer King Jayavarman IV, vertically arises in Pyramid shape with 7 tiers enhanced by impressive shrines. Learn from your tour guide about the significant city of Khmer Empire. Resume the journey to venture Beng Mealea jungle temple which was built in 12th century during Angkor Wat time. We then enjoy the guided walking orientation within the wilderness to unlock the hidden temple whose the ruined rocks spread around, enhanced by the vegetation and the tranquility. Walk, crawl, climb and squeeze into/over galleries to see its amazing setting, reveal the history, take some amazing photos and feel the natural surroundings. Return back to Siem Reap city, we stop to observe how traditional bamboo sticky rice is made, and try some bites of its delicious taste. Next our guide and driver say Goodbye to you.
