

Homicide Research Working Group

2019 Annual Meeting

Call for Papers/Submissions

29 May – 01 June

Clearwater Beach FL

Homicide in Public Places

Orlando. Las Vegas. Pittsburgh. Thousand Oaks. These high profile incidents and others like them entail far more than lives lost. Countless others are affected, leading some to claim it represents a “new normal.” Understanding, preventing, and responding to lethal violence requires a coordinated effort between the criminal justice system, first responders, researchers, as well as the public.

The 2019 annual meeting of the Homicide Research Working Group will be held 29 May – 01 June in Clearwater Beach FL at the beautiful Sheraton Sand Key Resort that is on the beach. The theme for this meeting is Homicide in Public Places. However all submissions related to lethal violence are encouraged. Throughout the meeting, we will also honor the life and work of founding member Christine Rasche, who passed away in 2018.

The deadline for submission of poster, panel, and paper presentations is 15 February 2019. Please send a brief abstract (up to 250 words) to Jay Corzine (jay.corzine@ucf.edu) and Greg Weaver (weavegs@auburn.edu), 2019 Program Co-chairs. The preliminary program should be completed on or about 15 March. Authors of approved submissions will also be expected to provide a five (5) page summary of your paper or poster for distribution at the annual meeting. Presenters must be current members of the Homicide Research Working Group.

Additional information related to the meeting and accommodations will be posted on the HRWG website www.hrwg1991.org. Save the date and we hope to see you there.
