'Walk Their Talk' Social Media Challenge

Welcome to our challenge. Let's find happiness within ourselves again...

If you have ever felt the way Lisa did then please understand you are not alone. Women from all walks of life have endured the same trauma, heartbreak and sadness. It takes strength, knowledge and a keen sense of independence to overcome such situations. We must understand that by standing together and supporting one another we can make a change! Stop giving away your power and start here by learning how to take back control, restore your confidence and be a happier, healthier version of yourself.

"The last time a man broke my heart, he broke me too. I was lost, my self-esteem was low, and I began to loathe myself for my willingness to continue to be with a man who no longer loved nor respected me. I gave him my power..." - Lisa K.
