Who we are.

Last year Viva Vancouver Festival brought the community together to celebrate the richness of Latin cultural through food, music and craft beers. We stand committed to support programs and build strong community partnerships. Thus, a portion of the funds raised will benefit the multiple programs through the Clark County Latino Youth Leadership Program.

The second annual Viva Vancouver Festival aims to bring the community together to celebrate culture, food, music and craft beers at Esther Short Park Saturday, August 18th & Sunday, August 19th Through the generosity of sponsors and people like you, we will add rich cultural diversity and unity to our community and support a local non-profit organization.
