Minutes of the Roxbury Selectmen’s meeting May 20, 2019

In attendance: Selectmen Mark Funk, Tim O’Brien and Jim Rousmaniere

The meeting opened at 5 p.m.

The selectmen generally discussed road maintenance planning regarding the Davis Road and Middletown Road. It’s understood that Keene city officials have agreed to walk Middletown Roade up to the Dakin Road that leads to Babbidge Reservoir to assess the condition of the road following significant truck traffic related to the Babbidge Dam project; a date for such a joint inspection has not been set; city officials will be contacted regarding setting up a date.

Selectman O’Brien reported that the long-term plan for road maintenance is now loaded on the office computer.

It was agreed that the selectmen will contact state officials in the Department of Revenue Administration regarding next steps regarding excavation tax payments related to the state’s Route 9 project.

The selectmen await rough estimates for the construction of a salt/sand shed.

It was agreed that Sexton Ken Buffum would enlist the assistance of a local individual to conduct clean-up of the Upper Cemetery.

It is understood that the next selectmen’s meeting will occur on Tuesday, May 28 since Monday, May 27 is Memorial Day.

Selectmen Funk and O’Brien filled out the manifest, which was signed. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 5:45 p.m.
