

A Bumper Sticker Lesson

Living in the Atlanta area and routinely making my way through bumper to bumper traffic is often frustrating. However, it gives me plenty of time to reflect on the wisdom that comes in the form of vehicle bumper stickers.

Some of them are funny. Like:

Technically, All Galaxies are Far Far Away. (For you Star Wars fans)

I'm Still Hot, It Just Comes in Flashes. (Well, you know who you are...)

Then, there are bumper stickers that are political. There's:

"We the People" Tells the Government What To Do.

Government's First Duty is to Protect the People, Not Run Their Lives.

Those Willing to Forfeit Liberty for Security Will Have Neither.

Of course, there are also religious and inspirational bumper stickers. You've probably seen:

Jesus is Lord, Whether You Believe it Or Not.

Your Life is Your Message to the World. Make it Inspiring.

The Best Things in Life are Not Things.

The following bumper sticker is a new one on me:

It's blank! The blank bumper sticker stands for those who sit back and do nothing.

God's people cannot afford to sit back and become lazy on the job. The Bible says, "But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (Jas. 1:25). Did you catch that? He said, "a doer of the work."

What kind of bumper sticker would best describe you? Hopefully not the _____ one.
