Do you and your spouse have “your song” from your dating years? Maybe a song you had played at your wedding? Missy and I do. “Timing is everything” from the movie Country Strong is ours. Not only that one, but “That’s important to me” by Joey and Rory, we also played at our wedding. When I hear either song, it takes me back to those “wonder years” where the relationship was new and filled with those butterfly feelings.

Songs take us back to memory lane, much like smells do. Perhaps its his cologne he wears for only special occasions, or the taste of Italian that reminds you of your first date. We are reminded by our senses of both good and bad times that we either love or detest.

Aren’t you thankful for those good memories that you have? If I were to ask you, what song do you and the Lord have, what would you say? Songs have a way to enrich our hearts, lift our spirits, and pour out our hurt to Jehovah. Songs can be so emotional, you lose words and start with tears.

Did you know that the Lord sings over his people? For the remnant of Israel, the faithful ones who were in captivity, the Lord promised to sing over them and to be with them through the hard times.

“The LORD your God is in with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you; in His love He will no longer rebuke you, but will rejoice over you with singing.” Zep. 3:17

Songs have always been in the heart of God and in the heart of His people. Songs of deliverance, praise, vengeance, and sorrow. What song would the Lord sing over you today? He wants to sing deliverance, love, and companionship. Are you singing His song?
