About Us

In 1950, a group of citizens gathered at Gaffney's Lake Wilderness Lodge to celebrate and raise funds in order to purchase the area's first fire engine. Firemen sold tickets for one dollar each in their effort to raise $1000. They succeeded, and our celebration of community was born. In 1951 the first Queen and her Royal court were crowned. The 1958 festival added the famous Cedar River Boat Race with entrants building their own boats. The Queen's Parade, now known as the Maple Valley Days Parade, was introduced in 1961 and is an event that young and old alike enjoy. 1976 brought the recognition of the "Citizen of the Year" and a street dance. During the 1980's and early 1990's, the festival expanded to include events and activities to entertain all age groups. In 1998, the festival returned to Lake Wilderness Park. We are proud to say that in 2003 Lake Wilderness Park became the property of The City of Maple Valley. This event has truly become "The Festival in Our Park".

The festival is organized and operated by a group of volunteers from the greater Maple Valley area who make up the organization known as MAPLE VALLEY DAYS COMMITTEE. None of these volunteers receive any compensation for what they do, and what they do is phenomenal. Our festival is registered with the state as a Non-Profit Organization and with the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(4).

Maple Valley is a very diverse community and our festival reflects the values we all share.
