Pastoral Notes by Fr Edmund Vargas

Lazaruses at our gates

In the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man, Jesus names the poor man but he does not give any to the rich man. We, people, usually give particular attention to those who are rich and famous but not to those who are poor. In society pages of publications, we carefully note the names of hockey players, actors and actresses or politicians who attended functions but not really pay any attention to waiters or waitresses or those others in the background who apparently do not count.

The problem with the rich man (traditionally referred to as Dives, meaning rich in Latin) was not his wealth, but his indifference to Lazarus and his misery. The rich man just did not care. He was indifferent.

The parable applies to us on the individual as well as on the social level.

As individuals, we may not be financially rich, but we are all rich (that is, gifted) in something like intelligence, health, good looks, education, career or friends. Daily, we encounter people who are far less gifted in one of these aspects. We sometimes tend to look down or be indifferent to those who are not very bright, uneducated, ugly or unpopular? We sometimes are not keen to smile or greet beggars or servers or waiters or waitresses. Let us be more aware and conscious of those Lazaruses at our gates and even in our midst. How attentive are we to the Lazaruses in our lives? Those who just want a 'scrap' of our time or attention?

On the social level, we often hear or read about the phenomenon of the growing gap between the rich and the poor. This is true in our society's classes as well as in our community of countries in the world. As a society, we have to do whatever it takes to reverse this trend. This is against the will of God in our world which He has created for all peoples. This growing disparity is also contributory to social unrest, conflicts and terrorism. Peace is rooted in justice and in the equitable sharing of the world's resources.

NOTICE OF MASS SCHEDULE CHANGES: Our parish priests will be attending the Diocese Study days October 1 – 3. There will be no Masses or Confessions on Tuesday, Oct 1. The 11:30 am Confession and Latin 12:00pm Mass will be cancelled on Wednesday, Oct 2 and the 8:30am Confession and English 9am Mass will be cancelled on Thursday, Oct 3. HEALING CORNER

"I tell you; in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance." (Luke 15:1-10) Even the abuser will be welcomed back if he/she repents. Let us reach out with compassion to those who need encouragement to find their way back to Jesus.

BOSOM OF ABRAHAM

For the perennially starving people of the Middle East, heaven was often pictured as a lavish meal. In the Roman style of banqueting, the diners lay on flat couches with their heads facing the table.

Two or three people would recline on each couch. The place of honor was beside the host. Hence the "bosom—or side of—Abraham" meant the lap of luxury. The beggar in today's Gospel enjoys this favored position presumably because of his trust in God. The wealthy man is sometimes known as "Dives", a Latin word meaning "rich". He is in hell—separated from heaven by a vast chasm.

Praise THE LORD O MY SOUL
