32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 10, 2019

On November 11 Canadians pause in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world. This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes.

CREDO FOR PEACE

We believe in God:

A communion of three Persons, A communion of Life

A communion of Love, A communion of Peace

We believe in Jesus:

God and human, Prince of Peace

We believe in his Gospel

The Good News, God's message of peace.

We believe Jesus died, rose,

And sent us the Holy Spirit so we could live in his peace.

We believe in Baptism that makes us one family in Jesus,
Crucified and risen from the dead to lead us to eternal peace.

He is our hope. Through him, we pray for peace;

With him, we work for peace. In him, we live for peace:

The peace of God's children, To the glory of God. Amen

Pastoral Notes

The Resurrection Factor

When the resurrection, as in eternity, becomes part of our life's equation, we realize that nothing is really ours, except the borrowed time we now spend. When one trusts in God, eternity or our own resurrection from the dead becomes an essential part of one's plans and projects. It even can become the supreme fulfillment of the faithful heart, whose greatest desire is to pass on to God, at last.

The hope of eternity teaches us how to live, that is, meaningfully. Eternity's inevitability through death cuts through our shallowness, complacency and our sense of competition, pride and prejudice. Eternity makes us discover our need for God and others. It gives our human relationships perspective.

The prospect of rising from death into eternity teaches us that the things we now enjoy in this world are given to us as gifts of God which we have to share with the rest of the world. The hope of eternity inspires us to generous, to be self-giving. It inspires us to think about the legacy and the contribution we have to make for the betterment of our world and society. Eternal life that comes after this life becomes our inspiration to seek the things that really last, things that outlive death and its power over us.

In today's gospel reading, Jesus speaks of God as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and not as the God of the dead but of the living. For God, all of them are alive. He calls those who rise from the dead "children of the resurrection". They will inherit the new world and its eternal life. They live forever because they are God's children. He brings back to life those He loves as children. As a loving Father, God wants us to live forever which is a word that is always used for real love. Our present life can be pleasant enough, like a comfortable accommodation or hotel. But this is not home. Our true home is Heaven, where the Father is waiting for us.

Peter Kreeft in a book entitled "Heaven and Hell", writes: "We are children, however hard we try to cover that up. There are no grown-ups. When we get old, we only exchange our toys: business for bats, sex for sleds, power for popguns. At death our Father calls: Come little ones. Time to put away our toys and come home... Home – that's what heaven is. It won't appear strange and faraway and supernatural, but utterly natural. Heaven is what we were designed for. Heaven is not escapist. Earth is escapist. Heaven is home."

Sign up to be GIFT BEARERS for our weekend masses. We are looking for individuals, couples and families to sign up to bring the gifts of bread and wine to the Altar. There is a sign-up sheet in the breezeway or call the parish office or email secretary@stanthonyscalgary.com.

REST IN PEACE

Monsignor Robert Devine
Fr. Dennis McDonald

Lucey Sullivan and Gerald Tuason

Our heartfelt sympathies to their families. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

On the weekend of Nov 16-17, please welcome Deacon Brian West who will speak about Chalice – a Canadian, Catholic child sponsorship program. He will explain how you can help a destitute child in a faith environment at one of 56 mission sites in 15 developing countries; specifically, with educational, medical and nutritional needs. Over 90% of all donated funds go directly to your child. You receive an official tax receipt for your donation. Deacon Brian was ordained in 2006 in the diocese of Calgary, and has served in Banff, Canmore and more recently Victoria, BC.

HEALING CORNER: Family Violence does not happen in a vacuum. It couldn't be so widespread or have carried on so long in silence if it were only a matter of a few people not controlling their tempers. Abuse is rooted in a host of personal and social values that we have come to accept as right or necessary or "normal." "God, we know that many of your children have been hurting for a long time. Open our eyes to their pain and help us to reflect on the values we hold which may contribute to the pain and silence around family violence."

RED WEDNESDAY

November 20 has been designed by the pontifical charity, Aid to the Church in Need, as a day of prayer and honour for our sisters and brothers across the world who face persecution as a consequence of their belief in Christ and His Church. All our parishioners are asked to participate in prayer and to wear red on that day and especially for 7pm mass in solidarity with Christians facing unimaginable violence and deprived of even basic religious freedoms. All who attend our Perpetual Adoration Chapel on November 20 are asked to pray for peace and religious freedom for all Christians.

AN ADVENT GATHERING with Fr Edmund will be on December 2-4 (Monday to Wednesday), starting at 7pm at St Anthony's Church. The themes will be "Advent according to Mary" (December 2), "Advent according to Joseph" (December 3) and "Advent according to the Church" (December 4). The Wednesday reflection will be during the regular 7pm Mass & Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help. All evenings will be followed by a Parish (Town) Hall meeting with goodies, coffee & "miked" conversations. At the hall meeting, everyone is invited to air questions and concerns affecting our parish life.

PROMOTIONAL MATERIAL: All promotional material must be brought to the parish office for review prior to display in the church or the hall. Any material which has not been reviewed will be removed.

SEVEN BROTHERS MARRIED

It is strange to realize that most of the people of the Old Testament did not believe in the resurrection of the dead. By the first century B.C. a few Jews had come to accept the idea.

Conservatives, such as the Sadducees, still rejected it. They cringed at Jesus' preaching about the resurrection and tried to belittle him. Today's attack is prompted by an obscure law. If a man died without children his brother, his brother had to marry the widow and have children by her. They were still considered the children of the first husband.
