

WELL CONTROL EXPERT / INSTRUCTOR

Job Description:

1. Adhere to all Client, D&WO and international HSE standards, policies and administrative controls.
2. Conduct high level and advanced training school in Well Control for Client D&WO operations. Prepare professional well control curriculum for all levels of training.
3. Provides expert advice and assistance on well control training as International Association of Drilling Contractors (IADC) & International Well Control Forum (MCF) Certified Well Control (WC) instructor and assessor.
4. Run and handle well control curriculum for all levels of training.
5. Prepare competency map for the skilled field professionals in terms of technical knowledge and Well Control handling.
6. Conduct well control assessment tests, prepare/review D&WO manuals, train and develops CLIENT engineers and operating personnel in his area of expertise.
7. Performs other miscellaneous duties as assigned by the Unit Supervisor or Division Head to whom he reports.

Qualifications:

- a. Engineering Degree will be highly considered.
- b. Intensive industry training including appropriate specialized courses and seminars with the diploma education will be considered.
- c. At least 3 years' experience as WC Instructor in the internationally recognized training institute.
- d. Familiar with the Well Control Competency Program for D&WO personnel.
- e. Expertise in handling DS 6000, DS 5000 & DS 20 simulators.
- f. Extensive field experience as Driller-Tool-Pusher (highly recommended)
- g. Experience in preparing curriculum and training materials.
- h. Excellent written and oral command in English language and communication skills.
- i. High experience (at least 5 years) in all Drilling & Workover Operations.