DAY 01: MANILA LISBON

Departure Manila on board EMIRATES AIRLINES. Enjoy in-flight meals and entertainment.

DAY 02: LISBON (D)

Arrival in Lisbon. Upon arrival, the group will be met by a local guide for a brief orientation tour before heading to your hotel. Your informative local guide will tell you about Portugal's Restoration years and what effect this period had on the places you will see during your tour. Your first visit --the district of Belem. Belem's most famous features are the 16th-century Tower of Belem and the Jerónimos Monastery. You'll also see Monument to the Discoveries, erected in 1960 to honor the 500th anniversary of the death of Henry the Navigator. Afterwards, transfer to hotel for dinner and check in.

DAY03: LISBON-FÁTIMA-ÓBIDOS-NAZARÉ-LISBON BD

After breakfast, head north on a day trip to the beautiful villages of Fátima, Nazaré and Óbidos. Get comfortable in an air-conditioned vehicle as you start your journey toward the town of Fátima, a once-sleepy rural village that became an important pilgrimage site when three shepherd children reported apparitions of the Virgin Mary in 1917. Visit the Sanctuary of Fatima, a basilica that honors the apparition and attracts millions of Catholic pilgrims every year who go to pay their respects to the shrine. Next, visit the 14th-century Batalha Monastery, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that illustrates the rich artistic heritage of the late 1300s. Discover the impressive royal burial site at the basilica's Founder's Chapel, where King João I, Queen Philippa of Lancaster and their son Prince Henry the Navigator were buried. Next, head to the Nazaré cliffs and continue through the picturesque villages of Foz do Arelho and São Martinho do Porto. Finally, make your way to the medieval village of Óbidos. Founded in 208 BC, Óbidos is commonly known in Portugal as the 'wedding present town', as it was a gift from King Dinis to Queen Isabel on their wedding day.

DAY 04: LISBON - MERIDA - SEVILLE (B/D)

After breakfast, early morning departure to Merida. The city of Merida was political and cultural center of Hispania Rome. Merida was conquered by the Muslims in 713 A.D. After a 500-year period of decline, the city was virtually abandoned until the 1500's. Visit the Roman Ruins, before heading to your final destination for today. Upon arrival in Seville, then check in.

DAY 05: SEVILLE (B/D)

After breakfast leave your hotel for your full-day sightseeing tour around spectacular Seville - the capital of Spain's Andalucía region. The lavish square in Maria Luisa Park - and learn of its creation for the 1929 Ibero-American Exposition World's Fair. As you travel, your guide will point out other top Seville attractions like the Palace of San Telmo and Torre Del Oro - an eye-catching building that once held precious metals from America. Continue through Seville's Santa Cruz quarter and you'll soon understand why so many describe it as the city's prettiest neighborhood. Watch out for two UNESCO World Heritage-listed attractions here - Royal Alcazar Palace (or Real Alcazar Palace as it's known in Spain) and Seville Cathedral, then visit the Bullring of the Royal Maestranza museum to explore at leisure. Dinner with Flamenco.

DAY 06: SEVILLE - CORDOBA - MADRID (B/D)

Early morning departure from your hotel and head to Cordoba. A highlight of your tour of Cordoba is a visit to the Catholic cathedral, converted from a mosque when the Christians conquered Cordoba in 1236. With nearly 1,000 pillars, the cathedral's original Gothic architecture is combined with Baroque and Renaissance elements. You'll see the remarkable Cardinal's Chapel and its treasures, including an ivory crucifix and important sculptures and paintings. Next, you'll visit the old Jewish quarter, stepping back in time to the era of the Romans and Goths. You will see one of the few synagogues existing today in Spain, built in 1315, as well as many important monuments to Cordoba's most important sons, including the Roman philosopher Seneca, Arabian philosopher Averroes and the Jewish philosopher Maimonides. Then head on to Madrid.

DAY 07: MADRID-TOLEDO - MADRID(B/D)

After breakfast, transfer to Toledo, for your sightseeing tour, travel southwest to Toledo - an ancient UNESCO-listed city that is often considered as the spiritual capital of Spain. Our guide will tell you about the ancient city and its countless attractions. The journey takes roughly an hour, leaving you with a good three hours in town to see the city highlights. Many attractions are clustered around the Old Town, so head there first to see Cathedral de Toledo - a Mudejar and Renaissance building that represents the heart of Catholic in Spain. Then after lunch back to Madrid for your shopping the whole afternoon, before you proceed to the dinner, then back to hotel.
