

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How will you start Zoning?

On Day One, the plan is to copy and adopt the County's current Land Use Map, current UDO, current East Lincoln Development District and zoning ordinances, and then give the County the required sixty days' notice to take over zoning. After that, revisions to all of those documents can be made.

Zoning ordinances all require public hearings, with adequate notice (45 days is normal) before any changes can be made. It would likely take at least six months to make major changes to the current Zoning.
