Hawaii Premiere
The Gravedigger's Lullaby
 by Jeff Talbott
 directed by Jim Aina
 October 11 - November 3, 2019

Baylen is a gravedigger, a working-class man trying to keep food on the table in a world where other people make the rules. His wife Margot helps to make ends meet by doing laundry, but they're slipping further behind with each passing minute. The extremity of their situation is being further challenged by the new baby who cries and cries, night and day. But still Baylen goes on, digging one hole at a time for the pennies he brings home, trying to keep his family afloat.

After delivering his famous "I've been to the mountaintop speech" on behalf of the sanitation workers in Memphis, Dr. King goes to the Lorraine Motel to rest before another long day of meetings and marching. Who did he talk with? What did they talk about? A close-up portrait of a great man and a great leader.

Hawaii Premiere
Kimberly Akimbo
 by David Lindsay Abair
 directed by Swaine Kauai

April 17 - May 10, 2020
 Set in the wilds of suburban New Jersey, KIMBERLY AKIMBO is a hilarious and heartrending play about a teenager with a rare condition causing her body to age faster than it should. When she and her family flee Secaucus under dubious circumstances, Kimberly is forced to reevaluate her life while contending with a hypochondriac mother, a rarely sober father, a scam-artist aunt, her own mortality and, most terrifying of all, the possibility of first love.

2001 LA Drama Critics Circle Award for Writing

Outside Mullingar
 by John Patrick Shanley
 directed by Peggy Anne Siegmund
 June 19 - July 12, 2020

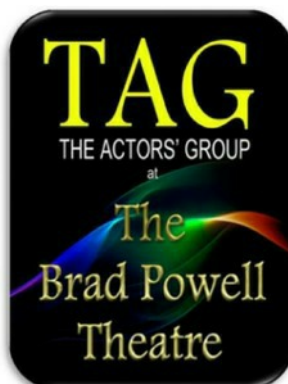

From the author of DOUBT and MOONSTRUCK comes a romantic comedy set in rural Ireland. Anthony and Rosemary are lovelorn farmers who haven't got a clue when it comes to love. These hopeless singletons will need to overcome a bitter land feud, familial rivalries and their own romantic fears to find happiness. Full of dark humor and poetic prose, John Patrick Shanley's tenderhearted portrait reminds us it's never too late to take a chance on love.

2014 Tony Award nominee for Best Play.
