

Meaning of Forms

Ki Bon IL Jang	White Belt	Basics #1	Straight
Chung-jik	Yellow Belt	Integrity	Strong
Be acutely honest throughout your dealings with all people. Believe in Justice, not from other people, but from yourself. To the true warrior, all points of view are deeply considered regarding honesty, justice and integrity. Warriors make a full commitment to their decisions.
Choon-gyung	Orange Belt	Respect
True warriors have no reason to be cruel. They do not need to prove their strength. Warriors are courteous even to their enemies. Warriors are not only respected for their strength in battle, but also by their dealings with others. The true Strength of a warrior becomes apparent during difficult times.
Young-gi	Green Belt	Heroic Courage
Hiding like a turtle in a shell is not living at all. A true warrior must have heroic courage. It is absolutely risky. It is living life completely, fully, and wonderfully. Heroic courage is not blind. It is intelligent and strong.
Myung-yae	Blue Belt	Honor
Warriors have only one judge of honor and character, and this is themselves. Decisions they make and how those decisions are carried out is a reflection of whom they truly are. You cannot hide from yourself.
Keng Hyuel	Purple Belt	Compassion
Through intense training and hard work the true warrior becomes quick and strong. They are not as most people. They develop a power that must be used for good. They have compassion and help their fellow man at every opportunity. If an opportunity does not arise, they go out of their way to find one.
Sung-Sil	Brown Belt	Sincerity
When warriors say that they will perform an action, it is as good as done. Nothing will stop them from completing what they say they will do. They do not have to "give their word." They do not have to promise. Speaking and doing are the same action.
Hui-mu	Red Belt	Duty Loyalty
Warriors are responsible for everything that they have said, and all the consequences that follow. They are immensely loyal to all of those in their care. To everyone that they are responsible for, they remain true.
Namoo	Red and Black Belt	Tree
The tree starts from a simple seed. It must be watered and nurtured. With time it grows tall and strong. A tree must have deep roots to withstand a storm. It daily reaches towards heaven to grow. The warrior is deep rooted and can weather any storm.
