FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

“We are a community of believers becoming like Christ to love and serve all people.”

Sunday, February 10, 2019

Welcome to Worshippers

Bruce Austin

Welcome to Community North Baptist Church, we're glad you're here. We gather this morning to worship God. In order for this service to be focused upon that purpose, we ask that you silence electronic devices and that you spend a few minutes in quiet meditation asking God to draw you close during this hour.

Please take a moment during the service to register your attendance today by completing the appropriate information in the red attendance pad as it is passed down your row.

Prelude Oh, How I Love Jesus/Oh, How He Loves You and Me Whitfield/Kaiser
 Betty Rutledge, Organ

Call to Worship Come, Christians, Join to Sing arr. Linn
 Sanctuary Choir

*Hymn 98 Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing Robinson

*Responsive Reading Allen Dahl, Reader

Reader: Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.

Worshippers: This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.

Reader: This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

Worshippers: Since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Reader: What is the greatest commandment?

Worshippers: Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind” and “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Reader: This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.

Worshippers: Let us love not with words or speech but with actions and in truth.

Hymn 652 Jesus Loves Me Warner

Old Testament Reading—Hosea 11:1, 3-4, 8-9 Vicky Halsey, Reader

“When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son. It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realize it was I who healed them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with bonds of love. To them I was like one who lifts a little child to the cheek, and I bent down to feed them. “How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? My heart is changed within me; all my compassion is aroused. I will not carry out my fierce anger, nor will I devastate Ephraim again. For I am God, and not a man—the Holy One among you.

Hymn 164 No One Ever Cared for Me like Jesus Weigle

Epistle—1 Corinthians 13:1, 4-8, 13 Joe Ray Halsey, Reader

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. Love is patient and kind; love is not jealous or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

*Hymn Though I May Speak with Bravest Fire Hopson

*Prayer of Stewardship Don Hild

Offertory Jesus Loves Me Bradbury/Debussy
Brenda Leeper, Piano

*Doxology Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him, above ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Anthem When I Survey The Wondrous Cross arr. Martin
Sanctuary Choir

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ, my God! All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down! Did ‘ere such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small; love, so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer Bruce Austin
