Welcome to Worshippers

Bruce Austin

Welcome to Community North Baptist Church; we're glad you're here. Awake to the day of triumph for our Savior! Give thanks for this day that leads to the cross! Come with your branches, hosannas, and songs! Fill the air with welcome to the Lord! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Prelude

Come, Thou Almighty King
Betty Rutledge, Organ,

Opening Words

Reader: Behold, my servant.

Lucia Rotenberg, Reader

Worshippers: The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because God has anointed me to bring good tidings to the afflicted.

Reader: Behold, my chosen one.

William Witt, Reader

Worshippers: God has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound.

Reader: This is the one in whom my soul delights.

Krista Rogers, Reader

Worshippers: God has anointed me to proclaim the year of God's favor, and also the day of God's vengeance.

Reader: I have put my spirit upon my servant.

Alexander Witt, Reader

Worshippers: God has sent me to comfort all who mourn, to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of sorrow.

Reader: My servant will bring forth justice to the nations.

Joyce Gorman, Reader

Worshippers: They shall have the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit; they shall build up the ancient ruins,; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastation of many generations.

Reader: Behold, my servant.

Jay Rogers, Reader

Worshippers: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Let earth receive her king.

John 13:1-17, 34-35 (NIV)

It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. 3 Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; 4 so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. 5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand." "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me." "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." 11 For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. 13 "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. 14 Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. 15 I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. 16 Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. 17 Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them. . . .

34 "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. 35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."
