THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

Here, O God, I pray for a realization of my condition in your eyes. Help me to see and know myself as you see and know me. Give me a clear insight into my relationship with you. Let me know myself as you know me.—Norman Shawchuck

Welcome to Worshippers		Bruce Austin
Prelude	Fill My Cup, Lord Betty Rutledge, Organ	Blanchard
Call to Worship	Worship Now Our God Sanctuary Choir	Allen
*Hymn 45	Morning Has Broken	Farjeon
*Responsive Reading		Vicky Halsey, Reader
Reader: Let us contemplate Jesus the Lord: instead of the joy meant for him, he endured the cross, disregarding its disgrace.
Congregation: We worship you, Lord.
Reader: Jesus, full of patience and goodness, you showed forgiveness and kindness to the very end.
Congregation: We worship you, Lord.
Reader: Jesus, you came into the world to serve and to give your life; you were betrayed for money, dragged before Pilate to be judged, and nailed to a cross.
All: We worship you, Lord. We praise you with all our heart and glorify your name forever.

Pastoral Prayer Bruce Austin

The Lord's Prayer Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Message Love Forgives Pastor
Love keeps no record of wrongs—1 Corinthians 13:5 (NIV)

Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing" - Luke 23:34

Why is our altar so barren and drab? Where have the flowers gone?

Lent is the season of self-examination and reflection to mourn our sin and the price paid to redeem us. The items on our altar symbolize Christ's 40-days in the wilderness and His journey to the cross. The altar reminds us of our sinfulness and his suffering and sacrifice on our behalf.

Anchor Class Social—Tuesday, March 17 at 6:30 p.m. in the café.

Men & Women's Potluck Breakfast—Saturday, March 28 at 8:30 a.m.

Youth Spaghetti Fundraiser—Sunday, March 29 following morning worship service.

Precautions to take during current coronavirus crisis.

- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds.
- Use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer-- these are available throughout the church.
- Avoid handshakes; use a fist-bump instead. A smile and a "hello" are always appropriate.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue, then throw the tissue in the trash.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Stay home if you are coughing, sneezing, have a fever, or when you are sick.
- Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- The church will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as recommended by the situation and the health department.
- Remember the words of Scripture: "And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?" and "Cast all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you."
