

Our President...

Eve Marie Labrano teaches 3-5 year-old students with disabilities and varying exceptionalities. Eve Marie earned her Masters Degree in Reading in 2015. Because Eve Marie has been involved in Samaritan Ministries from its inception, she holds a clear vision as to the ministry's goals for the future as President of the Board.

Our Executive Director...

Cayti Recker,

A resident of Flagler County for 27 years, Cayti met Lorraine Vickery, the founder, in 2003. She was a stay-at-home mother of three young daughters and then transitioning through an emotionally draining divorce. Having the encouragement and support of Samaritan Ministries, Cayti completed her college degree in 2006, and for the past 12 years has been a professional Sign Language Interpreter for the Deaf. Cayti has volunteered for Samaritan Ministries since 2004 and became a board member in March of 2017. She was named Executive Director in December of 2017 and truly understands firsthand the vision and mission of Samaritan Ministries.

Our Board of Directors...

Jeff and LaJuana McKay

moved to Palm Coast in 1998. As a U.S. Army Retired Major, Jeff McKay served in Germany and Japan, receiving an Army Commendation Medal for creating a RADAR operators' school. He is also a retired secondary science and math teacher. After 25 years in agribusiness, manufacturing and construction, Jeff serves Samaritan Ministries with his excellent handyman abilities. LaJuana holds a Bachelors' degree in Business Administration and a Masters in Instructional Technology. LaJuana serves Samaritan Ministries as a House Mom and Bookkeeper. Both are certified Guardian ad Litem representatives for the Flagler County dependency court and LaJuana serves on the Board of Directors of the GAL7 Foundation.

Richard Dake created Alliance Taxi Company in 2011 and today provides not only leadership as a board member, but also much needed transportation to Sunday services for the residents of Samaritan Inn. Along with his wife Gail, Richard holds to the scripture that says "Pure and undefiled religion before God is to visit orphans and widows in their trials..." James 1:27.

Our Secretary...

Gail Dake knows the struggle of physical and emotional abuse from her past. As a young mother of three children, Gail earned her degree in nursing. She has pursued a life of service to others. As an RN, Gail is also a valuable resource for the mothers and children in residence at Samaritan Inn. She serves as secretary for the Board of Directors of Samaritan Ministries.

Our Treasurer..

Kent Kosko, a resident of Palm Coast for 25 years, has served as an Enrolled Agent for Jackson Hewitt since 2011. With his tax expertise, Kent is qualified to complete both personal and corporate tax returns, and may represent tax cases to the highest level— the Supreme Court. Samaritan Ministries is blessed to have such competence to maintain our financial integrity as a non-profit entity as Kent serves as treasurer on the Board of Directors!
