As of 3/13/2020, we are cancelling all events at the Clubhouse through April 1st, with the exception of small groups under 30. These groups will need to sanitize (procedure forthcoming) before and after their events. It is recommended that all individuals at gatherings keep a safe distance of at least 3 chair spaces from others. We are asking that anyone with a fever, cough, sore throat, etc. refrain from coming to Clubhouse and that anyone that has traveled by air or cruise ship also refrain from coming to the Clubhouse until further notice. The Cantina will also be closing as of this coming Monday, March 16th until further notice.

The Recreation Department will remain available. We will put our efforts towards assisting Residents in need with groceries, shopping, etc. especially those Residents that are in self quarantine. We also hope to provide light meals (prepared by healthy non exposed persons) to Residents in need. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation. Thank you.

Upcoming SLCCV . . . ROAD TRIPS!

Per your multiple requests, your Rec. Dept. is sponsoring these upcoming trips:

Mount Dora Spring Festival

$48 (w/lunch - $65.00)

Ticket Cut Off: March 15th

Saturday, March 21, 2020

Depart Clubhouse at 8:00 am / Return 6:30 pm

CELEBRATE SPRING! JOIN US FOR A LADIES LUNCHEON BUS TRIP! Join us on the historic streets of Mount Dora to celebrate the town's 23rd annual Spring Festival. It's a fun, open-air event, held rain or shine, that showcases hand crafted products from more than 250 artisans from all over the country. This year's event features wine tasting, musicians, and great festival food. Far less crowded than the October craft festival, this is a great opportunity to explore the quaint shops and enjoy lunch with friends!

We will meet for coffee and donuts and 8:00 am. Bus Departs at 8:45 am. and returns between 6-7:00 pm. We arrive at Mount Dora at approximately 11:00 am. Optional Lunch at "The Windsor Rose Tea Room" at noon or lunch on your own. After lunch, it's shop and explore till 4:00 pm. What better way to celebrate Spring then with Lunching and Shopping with Friends at the annual Mount Dora Spring Festival?
