

Kitchen & Bathroom design training for Interior designers of all levels

WOULD YOU LIKE TO....

- Take Control of your Projects by gaining the knowledge to be in charge of, and not at the mercy of sales people, contractor and other trades?
- Know the Products and Suppliers in the industry. Learn which manufacturers offer what products? Recognize spec sheets?
- Know the cabinet construction and specifications, and how to design a kitchen without relying on the knowledge of others?
- Learn about communicating your ideas with plans and detail drawings?
- Have a Coach guide you on an upcoming project, assuring you make the correct decisions?
- Ask questions to an experienced professional about business practices in the industry?
- Proper design for task, ambient and accent lighting for K&B
- The list goes on and on when it comes to all the technical stuff that encompasses K&B projects.

Now, these are training and coaching sessions designed to improve your knowledge and skill in all things K&B Design/Business. A recording of the Webinar and any documents will be made available to you. This is not the fluff, this is all the technical stuff!

I am offering a plethora of knowledge and training for the Interior Designers that want to learn more, and to share my expertise with others.

About:

Alison Solar founded Solara Designs, Inc in 2002, a successful NY Kitchen and Bath design firm, and brings with her 30 years' experience in the industry. Her works include projects throughout the NYC Tri-State area for budgets both big and small. With all this experience and knowledge Alison has turned her focus on educating and mentoring the less experienced designers out there eager to know more and better their skills.

Both technical and artistic Alison brings a lot to the table and enjoys teaching others what she knows.
