

Glamour

This class is part of CHEMAM's Spiritual Class Series.

The purpose of this class is to assist students in understanding and identifying the “matters” of the personality. This class is intended for students on a spiritual path ready for an adventurous study in the world beyond the five physical senses. In the book, Glamour: A World Problem, Alice Bailey provides a much needed exploration of the inner world. In the next eight weeks, students will have the opportunity to learn about the nature of glamour, illusion, maya, and the dweller on the threshold and make practical connections to how these dynamics work in a practical sense in their bodies and environment.
