From the Editors' Desk

Actually, not the editors desk, but rather his laptop on a table near the beach.

For the third year in a row, several Past Commodores (L to R, P/C Paul Quinn, P/C Bob Ridenour and P/C Rick Lee) were fortunate enough to rendezvous south of the border, at the Zihuatanejo Guitar Fest and enjoy a little sunshine, where P/C Bob was kind enough to take the motley gang to Isla Ixtapa for an afternoon of sunshine, swimming and a beer or two, aboard the S/V Luna.

In other news around the club, P/C Rick Lee has been hard at work designing a new website for the Hidden Harbor Yacht Club. Rick is going to unveil the new site at the March 12th meeting. Wish I could be there but, alas, I am stuck in Mexico for a couple more weeks. I was fortunate enough to get a sneak preview several days ago, and without going into a lot of detail I believe he has done a fantastic job.

Looking forward to the Garlic Fest at the end of June and the Daffodil Parade at the Tacoma Yacht Club in April. Hope to see you all there.
