Jack Hite Award

Congratulations to P/C Dane & Terry Fantz

For service above and beyond.

Wow, now that was a lot of fun! Of course I am referring to the Commodore's Ball. Vic and Kari Portolese hosted the event and did a wonderful job.

The appetizers and banquet dinner was great, although I can't vouch for the salmon because I have a moral obligation to only eat fully sustainable wild caught, for a multitude of reasons. That's another story. However everybody who ate it loved it. I know my loss. We ushered out Larry and Keli Parrot as Commodore and Commodoreable. A term Larry always liked to use while leading the club, and I was welcomed in as the new man in the hot seat. We had a good time doing all the normal rituals such as the passing of the flags, gifts for hosts, and retiring Commodore. And of course I have received the infamous Skunk Hat.

We danced the night away to music provided by our DJ and probably had no problem meeting the minimum at the bar. which helps to explain why I'm a little slow on the keyboard today. But Paul needs my report this morning, as he and Patty are leaving town for a couple of months. At any rate, we eventually adjourned to the new rooftop bar of the Graduate hotel. Stunning views of the city greet you upon entering at the 16th floor. Needless to say, we carried on and wouldn't you know there was a bunch of college kids having a Gold Party to add to the entertainment level. I was told a Gold Party is what us old folks use to call a Toga Party. One minute I was with the club and the next I was consumed in Gold. I got my bearings and found our party goes at a large table just around the corner. What a Night!

The next event is a Fleet Captain's event, and taking place in Langley on February 22nd and 23rd. The theme is a Mystery Weekend and there should be plenty of info to follow in this newsletter.

We have a lot of good stuff we're working on for the club, so please join us Tuesday the 11th of February, and remember the doors open at 5 and the meeting will begin at 6 pm.

Thanks everyone, and remember

Safe Boating Is No Accident!

36th Annual Mystery Weekend in Langley

February 22-23

Fleet Captain Event, FC Rick and Sharon Lee

Currently, there are 5 Slips tagged for HHYC at Langley (Port Of South Whidbey), you must call and reserve 1 of the 5 Slips to ensure a moorage...be sure to let the marina know you are with HHYC. Please let me know if you plan on reserving marina space.

This weekend is planned as a No Host weekend activity, but being a Mystery Weekend, anything can happen!

Understanding weather conditions at this time of the year could hamper boating plans, keep in mind the many Hotels available in Langley Link:

Langley Mystery Weekend

This year's theme is "Murder at Mardi Gras" and features the first-ever mystery weekend parade! Behind all the merriment, however, some business rivalries have sprung up and people are taking the law into their own hands. When an explosion rocks the town, killing a well-loved character, it's a tense time in "The Village by the Sea."

Participants are encouraged to wear Mardi Gras costumes for this year of mystery fun.

Around that sleuthing, visitors also sneak in a little shopping and a little sightseeing.
