Who We Are

Brenda Brown is the founder of Patterson-Brown & Associates which was launched in 2013. After a successful 11 year career in the aviation and governmental industries Ms. Brown had developed specialized skills that would enhance other businesses. PBA is a minority woman owned small professional services firm based in Augusta, Georgia. Established initially as a contract compliance consulting firm, but quickly expanded into total management solutions. These solutions include contract compliance, taxes, project managing, business development, staff augmentation, and construction training. We offer our clients the full package.
