

In The End

Hallelujah, praises erupt from the heavens,
As the Lord waits for His Children to come in,
The saints rejoice as they greet their kin,
The angels prepare their weapons,

Trumpets ring down from above,
Sound the alarm, the hour has come!
You who weep, wipe your tears,
You who are blind, open your ears,

You who are deaf, look up,
You who sleep, wake up!
You who are lost, pick a side,
He is here, it's finally time!

A fire rages from the sky,
Bodies have risen,
Leave everything behind,
Say your final goodbye,

Our Savior has arrived!
