The Mechanic

When you take your vehicle to a mechanic; do they change your vehicle? No, they merely make your current vehicle better. My first premise is that I CAN NOT change anyone; I can merely hope to give you the tools to help you be a better version of already great you. Do you want to be BITTER or BETTER? The “I” in BITTER stands for I, Individual, Impossible, Incorrigible, Inconceivable.... Whereas, the “E” in BETTER stands for Everyone, Empowerment, Enlightenment, Encouragement...Would you rather Enjoy life with Everyone, or deal with life as an Individual?

Instead of blowing up the world, I hope to Motivate the World. Instead of “Give ‘em Hell, I am the one who wants to “Give ‘em L—Love, Life, and Laughter.”

PAGE 2

Motivate Your World would like to dedicate this first issue to women and GIRLS across the world.

BEAUTY - By Expelling All Unpleasantries Toward You.

Some say, “Beauty is only skin deep”; I would like to help you by realizing that BEAUTY is “deeper than the skin”.

Our bodies are so amazing, and often teaches us important life lessons: Think of all the daily food we consume, our body processes it as to what is essential for living and what is Unpleasantries that it doesn’t need. What it doesn’t need, it expels to hopefully obtain optimal health.’

So why don’t we do this with things in our mind??? If we don’t expel things in our body, we get Krohn’s disease; if we refuse to expel the Unpleasantries in our mind, we end up with depression, anxiety, and other mental disorders.

Your BEAUTY is NOT based on what other say about you, rather it is based on WHO you are. BEAUTY is not what you wear on the outside, rather it is what you wear on your heart.

GIRLS— Gracious Individuals Really Living Strong

To empower GIRLS to realize how amazing each and every one is. Notice that the acronym does not identify GIRLS necessarily as dainty, or submissive, in fact, it doesn’t really identify gender either.
