

January 2018

Richard has served in public safety service for twenty-nine years. He has held positions as a Probation Officer, Deputy Sheriff, Police Lieutenant and Security Manager for an International Corporation.

He is a practitioner of servant leadership and is passionate to coach and mentor others to discover and use their talents and gifts for developing other leaders.

Richard is a graduate of California POST's Master Instructor program. He has developed curriculum for Law Enforcement, Emergency Management, Private Industry and faith based organizations with the emphasis of teaching others how to train and teach effectively using modern Adult Learning techniques.

As partner in Yorke Consulting, he is committed helping organizations and Individuals to realize their full potential through strategic planning, Leadership and staff training.