

Reformed Episcopal Mission Board

9 November, 2020

Dear Friend of Reformed Episcopal Foreign Missions,

As during Lent our members participate in the REC100 Offering for domestic missions, so during Advent our alms are dedicated to the work of foreign missions. This year's focus is on the Reformed Episcopal Missionary Diocese of Cuba.

The church in Cuba is providentially situated to become a springboard for greater ministry, church planting, and theological education throughout Latin America, and thus we wish to invest in these faithful, diligent, and enterprising Reformed Episcopalians—also suffering heavily from food and medicine shortages.

Enclosed:

- ✓ ten Advent Offering brochures for parish distribution
- ✓ one copy of the Advent through Pentecost "Cycle of Prayer"
- ✓ five copies of the latest "Cuba Chronicles"

 Please share these with your congregation before the holy season of Advent!

The easiest way for them to make an offering is to go to www.rec-bfm.org, click "DONATE" and then "Donate Online." Fill in an amount in the box labelled "Cuba," and complete their secure payment. Additionally, on the "Media" page you will find a) my presentation to your synod, b) several Cuban clergy interviews to share with your parish, and c) links to download each of these enclosed documents for additional printing.

In Christ, the missionary Word of the Father, and with thanks,

The Rev'd Canon John P. Boonzaaijer
BFM President

P.S. Become a "Sending Parish" and we will mail you a table top banner and enough printed "Cycle of Prayer" booklets for each of your families!

*P.P.S. Checks may also be sent to BFM treasurer at: Reformed Episcopal Church (BFM)
