

Immanuel Lutheran Church recently celebrated their 150th Anniversary. The congregation came together with various events throughout the year to celebrate this milestone. The year's celebration culminated with a banquet and fellowship honoring the church's rich history and heritage.

The ladies of Busy Hands came together with various ministries to create an anniversary quilt representing all the groups representing Immanuel

Altar Guild contracted to build a commemorative shelf sitter in the image of Immanuel Lutheran Church as it was at the time of its 150th Anniversary celebration.
