Director's Corner

Happy St Patrick's Day. The clock has sprung forward and the sun sets later giving us longer riding times and Spring is just around the corner. The temps have risen to riding range for several. I know, you hard liners have not stopped riding.

I'm going to ask that they seat us on the patio again for our Gathering on Thur 19 Mar. We will be giving away the Couple of the Year (COY) Plaque.

Our 2020 planning meeting is scheduled for Sun 15 Mar at 2PM. We will meet at the Oak Restaurant in Manchester. Bring your calendars and suggested rides and activities. There were a couple day rides and weekend rides we did not complete last year that will be on the ride calendar.

I found out I had some incorrect ride and dine dates on our web page. I apologize for those errors. Cathie Alexander usually sends a text reminding us. If you are not on her list, give her your cell phone number and she will add you to her list.

I would like this newsletter to be more informative so please send me your articles. Remember religious and political articles may not be published.

There are some Team positions that need to be filled. Look at page 1 and let me know if you are interested. I keep forgetting to take pictures on our rides and at our dinner gatherings. Please help me by taking some pictures and sending them to me. Better yet why doesn't someone volunteer to be our photographer.

No Chapter Couples came after the Chapter Couple of the Year Plaque last month. So, it is available for all Chapter Couples this month. We had a Sky Med presentation at our Gathering in Feb. It was very informative. Everyone should consider some kind of insurance that will take care of you if you are away from home.

We continue to have good participation at our dinner rides often being joined by sister Chapter members. They sometimes win our quarters game. Our next dinner ride is to 122 West in Tullahoma on 26 Mar. Check page 1 for our other dinner rides.

Many of you know some American Legion Riders have joined our Chapter. Steve asked if I would make some chili for their chili cook-off. You know they are desperate when they ask me to do that because I have never prepared chili before. I told him I'd try to convince Anne to prepare some also. Long story short, we both entered our chili into the contest along with 15 other recipes. The Manchester Fire Chief and the County Mayor judged all 17 chili's and 2 people from our Chapter won medals. Anne took 2nd place while Rick Jernigan took 3rd.

If you are planning to attend the Hillbilly Hoedown themed District Rally (Spring Fling) I encourage you to get registered and get your hotel before the hotel sells out.. The same is true for Wing Ding. Anne and I are still on the District Team so we will be taking our van to Spring Fling. We plan to leave for Wing Ding on Mon so we can be there for the Tues activities.

If you like to ride, come join us. If you like to eat, come join us. If you like to share your ride stories, come join us.

Until next time,

Rides

The 1st two Sundays in March have been excellent riding weather. On Sun March 1st, several of us, Randy, Lisa, Johnnie, Steve, Dale, Dennis W, and myself decided to ride to Bell Buckle to the Bell Buckle Café. Randy led us down some of the many backroads to Bell Buckle. We were surprised when we only had to wait long enough for them to set a table for the six of us. We had a wonderful lunch as always. Someone told me about the “grits” cake so I had to try it. Glad I did. They were sold out of the blackberry cobbler so Johnnie was disappointed. This was not unexpected since we got there in late afternoon. Since this was not a scheduled ride we had not set ride leader or set route. But that’s OK those are some of the best rides. On the way back Randy led again. When we came to the fork in the road, actually it was a stop sign, we were trying to decide whether to turn right and head straight back to Manchester or go straight and run some more country roads. It was getting late since we had not set back our clocks yet so we took the direct route. Besides it was starting to cool down some. We got back to Manchester and we all went our separate ways to home. Good ride, good food, good company. Thanks Randy for leading.

Sun March 8th was another nice day that presented another chance for an impromptu ride. We talked about a ride during our Thur dinner. I looked at the weather and sent a notification out Fri evening. A couple of us talked about Paint Rock Valley. This is always a pretty ride. Just don’t get too close to the shoulder of the road. I’ve ridden this route several times before but like to use my GPS so I don’t embarrass myself and miss a turn. I attempted to load my route from the computer 3 times and it didn’t work. But thought I got this. We met at the Murphy gas station in Winchester and off we went (me Randy and Lisa, Jimmie, Steve, Dale and Dennis W). All I had to do was turn at the Maxwell Grocery and continue to TN-97. You guessed it, I missed my turn but no problem I knew I could continue to Huntland and pick TN-97. We followed TN-97 to AL where the route changes to AL-65. We continued on AL-97 to Paint Rock, AL where we turned right onto US 72. We continued on US 72 to AL 35 in Woodville, AL where we stopped at the Citgo for a comfort break. While we were sitting and standing around, Jimmie said: right past the railroad tracks over there is AL-8. It’s a pretty good road and takes you over to AL-79”, which is the route I planned to travel. He said: have you been on that road before?” I told him I had not but if he wants to lead we would follow. I’m glad we did. It had more curves than my planned route. I’ll travel that road again. When we got to AL-79 Jimmie pulled over to change his jacket and I took lead again. We proceeded down AL-79 past the Hytop radar back into TN where AL-79 changes to TN-16. We headed back to Winchester where Dennis W split off and headed home. We got to the Rafael’s restaurant in the Walmart shopping center where Jimmie headed by home to get ready for a Church function. The rest of us ate at Rafael’s. I was hungry for a pizza and ordered a medium to eat there and take home. The clerk told me it was a buy 1 get one free. So I changed my order to a small. We talked about the ride and everyone enjoyed the detour Jimmie lead us on. Looking forward to more roads like that.

Mon Mar 9th Jerry and I rode to Rome, GA to get his bike triked. I rode my trike since he wanted to ride back with me. We rode the interstates since Jerry wanted to get back early in the afternoon. Jerry asked me to lead. Since I’m not yet familiar with the built-in GPS on my trike I had it set to avoid highways. I couldn’t figure out how to change it until we got to Complete Cycles where I reread the book and changed my settings for the return trip. On the way home we stopped in Trenton, GA for lunch at Thatcher’s BBQ and Grille. There was a Mexican restaurant on the square also call Lailito’s. We had a Nashville Hot fish sandwich which was pretty good. We didn’t try the BBQ but Yelp gives them a good rating. They also have Banana Pudding but we didn’t indulge. I think the lunch made Jerry sleepy because I felt his helmet on mine a couple times. Everything went well and Jerry should be able to pick up his “new” trike next week.
