

Room cancelations for Spring Fling

All

I have heard that some people are having a hard time connecting with the Evergreen Smoky Mountain Lodge and Convention Center to cancel your reservations for Spring Fling. I just talked with the Hotel and I was told that the Number to call for cancelations is 865-740-6612. I verified that your deposit will be refunded in full, this may take a little while but they will get it completed. The reason you cannot get through to the hotel by phone is, nobody is working at the hotel. Everything is closed until April 15, 2020.

The people who booked their rooms through our room block and used GWRRA code their rooms have already been canceled and they are working on your full refund. So you have no need to call the hotel to cancel. If you booked your outside of our block or you are not sure then you should call the number above and cancel your room.

Thank you for your understanding.
