“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on the minds...I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more” (Hebrews 10:16-17).

He has never entered a spelling bee, participated in a knowledge bowl, or appeared on a trivia game show. But God knows everything. “Great is our Lord and abundant in strength; His understanding is infinite” (Psalm 147:5). “Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways!” (Romans 11:33).

God knows the end from the beginning (Isaiah 46:9-10). He numbers the stars and knows the plight of every bird (Psalm 147:4, Matthew 10:29). No human ever escapes His attention (Psalm 33:13-14, Proverbs 15:3) He knows the number of hairs on our heads (Matthew 10:30). He knows more about us than we know about ourselves. “For God is greater than our heart and knows all things” (1 John 3:20).

God never forgets a single good thing that we do. “For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints” (Hebrews 6:10).

Then how fantastic is it to hear Him say of Christians, “Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more”? That truth is so incredible that the Holy Spirit put it in the book of Hebrews twice for emphasis (cf. 8:12). Only a sheer act of merciful, divine will could erase the marks of our guilt from His memory.

Since God is omniscient, “forgetting” is not an intellectual matter with Him. It is a functional issue. Of course He knows what we did, but when we repent He can act just like it never happened. What comfort!

If we accept the comfort, then we must accept the challenge, too: “Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you” (Ephesians 4:32).

In Our Thoughts & Prayers

Pam Babb, Carolyn Bukowich, Joyce Clarkson, Ed and Vera Cornell, Lee Crabtree, Glen Crumbliss, Eli Dodson, Joe Freund, Tim Hayes, Wilma Hill, Cheryl Neilans, Edith Toney, Bobbie Tuggle, Ruth Ann Wilson.

Edith Toney had surgery Monday in Kansas City.
Tim Hayes is in ICU at Freeman West.
Pam Babb is starting some new medicine. Pray that this helps give her some relief and improvement.
Debi Wince will have knee surgery on June 19.

Coral Haggard came Sunday evening asking for prayers of forgiveness and encouragement to allow God to be first in her life. She also wants to be identified with the church at Hillcrest. Her address is 1112 Skyline Dr., Neosho. Her phone is 417-592-3636. We welcome her to our family here.

Every "One" Counts: Remember when you give an extra dollar each Sunday, it goes to help someone in need. Last week we got a report from a past recipient who was able to have some eye surgery because of the help. She was in danger of losing her sight and now can see. If you know someone who needs immediate help, please contact Jennifer Daniels or Natalie McInturff.

Ladies: Sign language class will not meet this week.

The Eastside Church of Christ in Monett invites you to a gospel meeting through Wednesday at 7:00 with Ron Stough.

This Sunday's Sermons:

AM: Restoring the New Testament Church
 (Danny Boggs)

P.M. Q & A: Holy Spirit Edition
 (Danny Boggs)

Many of our number are "Camped Out With the Gospel of John" at Green Valley Bible Camp. We want to continue to pray for their safety and for a spiritually uplifting time as they enjoy Bible studies and camp fun!

Medicalodge devotional is this Sunday at 1:30. Come participate in the devotional and encourage the residents.

The Summer Youth Series Devos will be held on Tuesday nights at 6:00 p.m. throughout the summer. The next one will be June 18 at the King's house. Boys will bring chips and drinks, and girls will bring desserts. Keep Tuesdays open on your calendar for this weekly event.

You are all invited to a 70th Wedding Anniversary for Ed and Vera Cornell on June 23 from 1:00 – 2:30 in the activities center. No gifts please Your continued love and support is the gift! Please let the family know of your plan to attend by signing on the bulletin board or at the welcome desk.

June 30 is a fifth Sunday. Be praying about your contribution that day. All extra, above the budget, goes to help pay off the cost of the activities center.

Tim Murray is going to Honduras next month and could use some children's chewable vitamins to take to the children there. If you can help, please sign up on the bulletin board.

PreVBS: Parents, bring your kids to services early Sunday nights, June 28, July 7, and July 14. At 5:40, we'll sit at the front, sing some VBS songs, preview the VBS lessons, get fired up about inviting friends, and pray for the friends we're inviting.

Dear Hillcrest Family,

Thank you all so much for all of the love and support! I'm going to miss you all very much at Freed, but I'm very excited for what lies ahead. Thank you especially for the quilt and the book!

Love,
Kaden King
