Saturday and Sunday at 10:00 AM in Pope Marine Building
$10.00 each

- “That Ain’t No Way to Treat a Lady”
- Come along on this downtown armchair tour as Joyce Hester narrates the dealings that some of our lady settlers endured.
- Affected upon them by circumstances of nature, self-imposed choices or – quite literally – the plans of men, these female residents will surely earn a collective tsk tsk with their stories of tribulation.
- Let’s not trouble ourselves with the uncertainty of weather, the choice of delicate footwear, or PT’s uneven streets on our journey from the comfort of your seat in the Pope Marine Building.
