

Dressing the Victorian Lady

Sunday 11:30 AM in Pope Marine Building
$10.00 each

- Historical costumers Hazel Sanders and Zoe Reynolds will demonstrate how Victorian women donned their many layers of clothing.
- Victorian women had to spend considerable time dressing for an occasion. In many cases, she needed help getting dressed, especially if she was wearing a corset.
- See hand-sewn garments up close and learn about the role clothing and fashion played in the daily life of the 19th century lady.