

Uptown Walking Tours

Friday at 2:00 PM
Sunday at 11:00 AM
$15.00 each

Visit the part of Port Townsend where Victorian homes are on every street. The 90-minute walking tour begins at the historic 1892 Port Townsend Post Office on Washington Street. The tour includes a visit inside the 1883 home of Captain R.W. DeLion.

Captain DeLion was a Chilean who ran a prosperous shipping business, served on the Port Townsend City Council and as mayor.

The home's owner will regale you with stories of the house's history and restoration.

