

Starrett House Tours on May 2 & 4 from 2:00 – 5:00 PM

744 Clay Street, Uptown Port Townsend

Visit the historic 1889 George Starrett House for an open house tour. One of the most iconic Victorian homes in the country, the home features a unique two-tiered, free-floating staircase to its tower, where the ceiling has a painted fresco of the Four Seasons. Mr. Starrett built this mansion as a 2nd anniversary gift for his wife at a cost of $60,000.

Admission

Free, but a $10 donation is suggested

Accessibility

House interior is two levels that are only accessible by stairs. Entrance has 6 steps. Grounds are at street level.

Parking & Restrooms

Street parking is available on Clay and Adams Street. There are no public restrooms in the Starrett House.

