

Salty Dawgs by Jim Kerr on 03/09/18

Can't remember his first name but his last name was Ekblad and he played bass guitar. Anyone been in touch with him and know where he is?

Jim... I was the Salty Dawgs keyboard player from 67-68 and I've been on a quest to find some of the band members too! I remember Ed "Mouse" Loughery from PA who played drums; Dave Mealey who played guitar and bass after Ekblad left; and another guitar player, Bob Dunham from TX. I don't remember Ekblad's first name either, but we have a photo of him with the rest of the band playing on deck during an un-rep. After almost 4 years of searching, I haven't been able to locate any of these guys but I have been in contact with Jim Strong, another drummer who currently lives in Hawaii. Jim and I played in a band in HI before going aboard Anna. Hopefully some of these [missing] guys will see our blog here and we can make contact with them.

I am from and now live in Minnesota. Ekblad was also from MN. One of these days I will get on the phone as there are lots of them around the Twin Cities and St Michael. Him and I spent some time together in Hong Kong. I had an interest in music which he never knew about. I played the Accordion for many years and had studied music theory. We spent some time talking music.
