

BIPODS

Bipods are great on range and in hunting situations. They are designed to be an elevated point of contact on the front of your stock. They will help stabilize the gun for making accurate shots. I suggest that you get a bipod that will adjust side to side. This is key when you are shooting long range to adjust for level.

