

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Date: May 25, 2019

CRWC Vice President Linda App and President Eileen Brackens presented CRWC contributions of over $1,600 to the Alexandria Police Foundation represented by Executive Director Virginia (Ginny) Obranovich and Police Chief Michael L. Brown.

Police Chief Brown Speaks to GOP Women: CRWC Contributes to Alexandria Police Foundation

ALEXANDRIA, VA –

The Commonwealth Republican Women's Club (CRWC) recognized National Police Week by hosting Alexandria Police Chief Michael L. Brown and Virginia (Ginny) Obranovich from the Alexandria Police Foundation at the May CRWC meeting.

Chief Brown discussed a variety of local law enforcement issues including crime, traffic, scooters, and opioid abuse. He stressed the department's efforts to build trust and working relationships within the community. Obranovich gave an overview of the history of the Foundation and its current activities and community involvement.

CRWC President Eileen Brackens and Vice President Linda App expressed the club's support for law enforcement and appreciation for the bravery and dedication of Alexandria's police officers. On behalf of CRWC members, they presented contributions to the Foundation totaling over $1,600.

CRWC is the Alexandria chapter of both the Virginia and the National Federation of Republican Women (VFRW and NFRW). CRWC encourages local conservative women of all ages to become more politically involved by helping support and elect Republican candidates to public office at the local, state, and national levels. The club also has a conservative book club and organizes activities to support charitable organizations. More information is available at www.alexandriacrwc.org . ARCC (at www.alexgop.org) is the local chapter of the national Republican Party. AAYR is for Alexandria Area Young Republicans (www.alexys.org)

###