In a Season of Giving Republican Women Support Community Lodgings and Install 2020 Officers

ALEXANDRIA, VA –

The Alexandria Commonwealth Republican Women’s Club’s (CRWC’s) December meeting began with a welcome and presentation of gifts to Susan Fitzpatrick, Communications Director for Community Lodgings. The presents and books are for the holiday gift shop where students can use good behavior ‘bucks’ to buy holiday presents.

In addition, new club officers were sworn in by Paula Steiner, First Vice President of the Virginia Federation of Republican Women (VFRW). Outgoing club President Eileen Brackens was presented with a gift from the club by Linda Greenberg, in appreciation of her two years of service as President. Incoming club President Linda App praised the club’s leadership team and spoke of the work ahead in this important election year.

CRWC is the Alexandria chapter of both the Virginia and the National Federation of Republican Women (VFRW and NFRW). CRWC encourages local Republican women of all ages to become more politically involved by helping support and elect GOP candidates to public office at the local, state, and national levels.
